Referendum Measure Passes Legislature—People Vote in November.

BOSTON, Feb. 17.-The proposed woman suffrage amendment to the State constitution was passed by the house, by a vote of 196 to 33. It will be acted on by the voters at the election next November, having already passed the senate.

As soon as the result in the house was announced a shower of jonquils thrown by women in the galleries fell among the legislators.

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 17.—The senate passed the woman suffrage amendment to the State constitution, 17 to 4.

The house passed the resolution two weeks ago. The question will be submitted to the voters for acceptance or rejection in September.

PIERRE, S. K., Feb. 17.—By a vote of 24 to 18 the State senate rejected the bill recently passed by the house granting to women of South Dakota the right to vote on municipal issues, and for State and county officers not named in the constitution as "constitutional officers."

The measure provides that the women be permitted to vote only for statutory officers, chosen by the people. Qualifications to vote would be the same for the women as for the men.

available for fighting the foot and Trade Balance for Week Favors United States

Secretary of Commerce Redfield to-day made public his weekly report of exports and imports at thirteen leading ports, showing a trade balance in favor of the United States for the week ending February 13, of $30,320,607. Exports share of the cost of slaughtering affected herds and reimbursing the owners for their loss, of which the Government pays half and the State the remainder. Figures of the Agricultural Department show that, exclusive of the work in January, 101,175 animals have been slaughtered. Of these, 45,265 were cattle, 47,735 swine, and the remainder sheep and goats.
